Program Administration:
The certificate program is offered through the Faculty of Management and Rutgers-CIMIC as a part of the Division of Extended Educational Programs (DEEP), the continuing education division of the Newark Campus. The program is administered by the Faculty of Management and CIMIC in cooperation with the School of Law, School of Criminal Justice, Newark Faculty of Arts and Science, Center for Global Change and Governance, and School of Communication, Information and Library Studies from both the Newark and New Brunswick campuses.

The CIMIC director, Dr. Nabil R. Adam, will serve as the program director, and is responsible for designing of the program, administering the course offerings, transfer of credits, and maintaining effective collaboration and communication with the related academic units within and outside Rutgers as well as industry and governmental agencies.

*This registration form may be used by students who have already been accepted into the program.

Please look at our website for current course schedule information and location for each semester.

Enter the course number and title with payment amount for each course you plan to take as well as the registration fee.

If paying by credit card, you can fax in your form with credit card information to Tamara (973) 353-5808. Otherwise mail in the form with payment in the form of a certified check or money order made payable to Rutgers CIMIC, EC-Certificate Program. Mail this form with payment to the address on this form, Attn: Rosa Salgado. Payment must reach us no later than two weeks before start date of course.